

Royal Enfield Club of Australia Inc. Permit Scheme

Follow this process to obtain Club Permit Registration from VicRoads for your eligible vehicle.

You must be a financial member.

Refer to the VicRoads website for the current requirements of the Victorian Club Permit Scheme. These may change from time to time.

VicRoads - Registration - Limited Use Permits – Club Permit Scheme

To register a vehicle using the club permit scheme initially you need to obtain a Certificate of Roadworthiness from a Licensed Vehicle Tester. (It is optional for vehicles manufactured before 31 December 1948 to obtain a certificate of Roadworthiness)

There are 2 VicRoads forms that are required to be filled in by yourself and club officials. Both can be downloaded from the VicRoads website

Vehicle Eligibility and Standards Declaration for Club Permit Vehicles form.

The Club Scrutineer, Mr. Derek Pickard (0419 388 075), will fill in this form. Arrange an appointment with Derek to inspect your vehicle and take the necessary photographs for the Club's files.

Club Permit Application Form

This form should be filled in by you and signed by the Club Permit secretary, Mr. Stuart McKenzie (0458 888 858), to endorse you as a member of the club.

Take the 2 forms and certificate of roadworthiness to VicRoads, pay the prescribed fee, and you will receive a Club Permit number plate and a log book.

Advise Derek Pickard of the new registration number - within 24 hours of receiving it - for the Club's records. (businessmedia@hotmail.com.au or 0419 388 075)

It is possible to change Club's whilst retaining the same club permit registration. See the VicRoads website for more information.

Fees

All Royal Enfield vehicles will be processed at no charge.

Motorcycles, other than Royal Enfield, will incur a once off $50 administration fee.

Other vehicles, e.g. motorcars, will incur a once off $100 administration fee.

Follow this process to renew your eligible vehicle's club permit registration

Upon receiving the club permit registration renewal form do one of the following

Attend a Club Meeting with the renewal form, and a photocopy of it for the club's records. The Club Permit secretary, Mr. Stuart McKenzie, will confirm your membership and eligibility * and sign the form.

Post the renewal form, with a photocopy of it for the clubs records, and a stamped self addressed envelope, to the Club's address –

Royal Enfield Club of Australia Inc., P.O. Box 4075, McKinnon, 3024

After confirming your financial status and eligibility * the form will be signed by the Club Permit secretary, Mr. Stuart McKenzie, and posted back to you in the return envelope. Allow at least 5 business days.

Eligibility

Metropolitan members need to attend at least 2 Club events in a financial year, otherwise a $100 administration fee will be charged for the Club Permit renewal. Country members need to attend 1 Club event in a financial year, otherwise a $100 administration fee will be charged for Club Permit renewal.
